

Qatar Centre for Global Banking & Finance

Invitation Challenges to Financial Stability 11 March 2020

In partnership with

Challenges to Financial Stability

Science Gallery London

Morning: Fina	ancial Stability
9.30-9.40	Opening Remarks
9.40–10.20	Conflict, compromise or co-ordination: a policy making perspective Paul Fisher, DAFM Research Centre, King's Business School
10.20–11.00	Beyond Pangloss: Financial sector origins of economic booms. Frederic Malherbe, University College London
11.00–11.20	Coffee Break
11.20–12.00	Monetary and Macroprudential Policy in a Macro Model of Households, Firm Owners and Bank Owners George Bratsiotis, University of Manchester
12.00–13.00	The nexus between monetary policy and financial stability Panel: Paul Fisher, DAFM, Roland Meeks, International Monetary Fund, Nathan Sussman, Graduate Institute Geneva, David Aikman, King's Business School, Francesca Monti, King's, Gulcin Ozkan, King's, Georgios Chortareas, King's
13.00–14.00	Lunch

rnoon: Fintech

14.00–14.40	Monetary policy with a digital currency Jack Meaning, Bank of England
14.40–15.20	Big Data and Fintech: a methodological overview George Kapetanios, King's Business School
15.20-15.40	Coffee break
15.40–16.40	Rise of FinTech – Friend or Foe? Panel: Giles Spungin, HSBC, Avraam Rafaildis, Nomura, Jack Meaning, Bank of England, George Kapetanios, Martin Weale, King's, Gary Vinokur, ICBC Bank, Sabu Samarnath, Fintech SME, Gerald Perez, Interactive Brokers
16.40–17.00	Coffee Break
Evoning: Kovnote Adnoss

ing: Reynote Adress

)-18.00 Fintech and Monetary Policy Transmission Iftekhar Hasan, Professor in Business and Finance, Fordham University

Reception 18.00